He did not believe, he said, that there existed any danger of a rupture of the friendly relations existing between the two countries, because both governments were desirous of seeing justice done.

"Never," he said, "have the relations between the countries been so cordial or so solidly cemented as at the present time."

BURNED FOR MURDER

Lynching of Rodriguez Grew Out of Brutal Killing of Woman.

Rock Springs, Texas, November 11.—The burning of Antonio Rodriguez, a Mexican, here November 8, which, it has been said, provoked the anti-American outbreaks in Mexico City, was the citizens' vengeance upon him for the wanton murder of Mrs. L. K. Henderson, wife of a ranchman.

Mrs. Henderson was alone on the gallery of her ranch home with two little children when Rodriguez rode up and after a few words shot her twice and rode away.

Three hours later her husband came home and found her dead. The children told the story of the tragedy.

Rodriguez was captured the next day. He admitted the murder and said it was because the woman "spoke mean" to him.

He was placed in the Rock Springs jail. A few hours later he was taken out by a mob and carried half a mile from the village, where he was tied to a mesquite bush, wood was piled about him and kerosene poured upon it and a torch applied.

Rodriguez struggled a few minutes, but spoke no word. No shots were fired.

In five minutes the crowd dispersed, leaving the body burned to a cinder. A coroner's jury found that he had met death "at the hands of parties unknown."

Many of the leading citizens of the town, including merchants and professional men, as well as ranchmen and cowboys, participated in the lynching. No attempt was made by any one to conceal his identity.

It was fifty miles from Rock Springs to the nearest railroad point.

Outbreak Directed at Diaz

Laredo, Texas, November 11.—Five Americans who own property in Northern Mexico, passed through Laredo yesterday, having left Mexico in fear of outbreaks.

According to private information here the outbreaks are directed against the Diaz administration as much as against Americans, because Diaz favors American capital. For this reason he may be depended upon to do all possible to check them.

AMENDMENTS ARE STILL IN DOUBT

Returns Show Two to Be Closer Together as Counting Proceeds.

Tabulation of the votes so far reported on the proposed amendments to the Constitution leave no indication whatever as to the fate of the two referring to treasurers and commissioners of the revenue.

The vote is evidently exceedingly close, unless the counting not yet reported have registered decisive majorities one way or the other, a very few ballots may determine the result.

So far as the returns received show, the amendment permitting county treasurers and commissioners to succeed themselves is sixty-four votes ahead of the opposition, while that referring to city treasurers and commissioners is defeated by a majority of 777.

This indicates that so far more than 800 of the voters discriminated between these two propositions. With half of the counties and a few cities yet to be heard from, it is evident that no prediction can as yet be ventured as to the result.

Decisively Rejected.
The amendment extending the sessions of the Legislature to ninety days is snowed under. The vote is more than three to one against. The majority against the single reading of bills maintains its position of being rejected by nearly two to one.

So far as heard from last night, the State voted as follows:
For extending legislative sessions, 7,084; against, 25,699.

For one reading of bills, 11,041; against, 20,558.

For county succession of treasurers and commissioners, 16,135; against, 19,071.

For city succession of treasurers and commissioners, 15,386; against, 16,163.

SORROW CAUSES DEATH

Chicago Man Grieves for Death of Daughters in Theatre Fire.

Chicago, November 11.—After grieving for nearly seven years because of the loss of three daughters in the Iroquois Theatre fire, in which nearly 600 lives were lost, John H. Reidy, for many years connected with the police force, was buried beside them yesterday in Calvary Cemetery. He died from a disease aggravated by his inconsolable sorrow. For several years he has at times been out of his mind. When the three daughters were brought to his home on the morning of December 31, 1903, Reidy tried to shoot himself, but was prevented by other members of his family.

He was then suffering from a mental derangement, which had never left him entirely since the moment he learned of the fate of his daughters.

PRESIDENT NAMES NEW COLLECTOR

H. Claiborne Willson Succeeds William Mahone in Petersburg.

SECRETARY FINNEY RESIGNS

Beautiful Church Wedding, Wednesday Music Club Reorganizes.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 11.—Announcement is made from Washington of the appointment by the President of H. Claiborne Willson as collector of customs for the port of Petersburg, vice William Mahone, who has held that office for twelve or fourteen years, and was a candidate for reappointment.

Mr. Willson has been deputy in charge of the internal revenue of this city for several years, and in one position or another has been in the government service for about fifteen years. The internal revenue and customs offices adjoin each other on the same floor of the Federal building.

Mr. Mahone succeeded Thomas L. Shippen, the collector under Cleveland's last administration, and it was not until the last year of that administration that the office paid anything of consequence. It is now said to be worth $5,000 or more per annum, not because of customs receipts principally, but because of the heavy export tobacco trade through the office.

Mr. Willson and Mr. Mahone have both been leaders in Republican politics for some years, but have differed in policies. Mr. Willson has not yet received his commission or official notice of his appointment.

Resignation of Secretary.

Secretary R. Gordon Finney, of the Chamber of Commerce, last night tendered his resignation of that position to the board of governors, and it was regrettably accepted. Mr. Finney succeeded E. L. Quarles as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce about one year ago. He has shown remarkable activity in promoting the interest of the chamber, and the various commercial and industrial interests of the city. The success of the recent agricultural fair was in large measure due to his untiring energy.

Mr. Finney resigned to resume the practice of law in Alexandria county, whence he came to Petersburg. The board of governors, in accepting his resignation, adopted resolutions expressing appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mr. Finney as an officer of the chamber, and his personal capacity and good judgment, and of his successful efforts in the promotion of the prosperity of Petersburg. The resignation becomes effective April 1, 1911, or sooner, if desired by Mr. Finney and his successor is secured.

Pretty Church Wedding.

In the presence of a large assemblage and in the midst of beautiful decorations, Miss Mary Eliza Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Booth, was married in Washington Street M. E. Church at 8:30 o'clock last evening to Thomas B. Spencer, of Louisville, Ky. The bride entered the church with her brother, Maynard Booth, by whom she was given away. She was handsomely gowned in white satin and carried Bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Leslie Booth, and by the following bridesmaids: Miss Juliet Daniels, of Augusta, Ga.; Miss Spencer, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Ethel Parker, of Dendron, Va.; Miss Josephine Steel, of Petersburg—all gowned in white and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. Dr. Hunter Spencer, of Staunton, was best man.

Remarkable Christmas Present.

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Bureau Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to take up every paper in America, and to watch every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man. The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,852.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Bureau Press Clipping Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable. There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man, Bureau Press, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Bureau Press, New York," will reach him with no delay.

The board of governors of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the efforts of the business men of Petersburg to put another steamer on the line between the two cities, and will aid in the movement if found necessary.

The officers of the Petersburg baseball club are looking out for a proper site for the future league games in this city. They have several in view. The league games the past season were played on the grounds of the Country Club. A park within or very near the city is desired.

A telegram was received to-day from a former Petersburg living in the city of Mexico, stating that matters are now quiet in that city, with no danger to Americans.

Petersburg's tuberculosis sanatorium, at "Birdville" is being put in condition, and is being thoroughly furnished for the reception of patients. The institution has a capacity for about twenty patients at present, and will be opened for business within a few days. The membership of the Anti-Tuberculosis League is rapidly increasing.

G. Mason, a well known and much respected citizen, died this morning at his residence on Harding Street, after a long illness. He was sixty years old, and is survived by his wife and four children—S. F. and A. G. Mason and Mrs. E. G. Hawkins, of this city, and Mrs. W. I. Brown, of Norfolk.

Mystery in Requisition

Dead Letter Office Repudiates $10 for Conscience Fund.

Washington, D. C., November 11.—A $10-bill in a special delivery letter, addressed to Mr. McLaughlin, dead letter office, Washington, D. C., with a communication signed "Conscience Fund," upset the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General's office to-day.

It was mailed at 11:20 o'clock the morning of November 8, at Philadelphia. The communication stated the money was due the "foreign branch" of the dead letter division.

Mr. McLaughlin, whom it was addressed, was formerly at the head of the foreign branch, but is now in charge of the "money branch." He turned the money and letter over to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General De Graw.

Princeton More Content of Win from Yale Than Usual.

Princeton, Nov. 11.—Princeton University graduates from all parts of the country began their biennial migration to Princeton to-day and the thirty-sixth annual football game between Yale and Princeton at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon indicated a record-making attendance. The Princeton team had its final signal practice at Lakewood, N. J., to-day, and will leave there about 8 o'clock to-morrow morning, reaching here at 12 o'clock. Odds Too Heavy.

New York, November 11.—Fred Brooks, the betting commissioner, announced to-night that he had tried to place $2,000 to $5,000 on Yale at the Princeton game, but the Princeton men shied at the odds.

Injured by Explosion.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., November 11.—Mrs. De Haas, a young married woman of near Coalwood, Russell county, was brought to Bristol to-night for treatment as a result of the explosion of a dynamite cap, which she swept into the fire, and which exploded, costing her the sight of one eye. Her little son had been playing with the cap, and she swept it in the fire, thinking it was a candle stub.

Sentenced to Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lexington, Va., November 11.—Harry Stilling was sentenced to-day by Judge S. H. Fletcher, of the Circuit Court of Rockbridge, to die by electrocution, Friday, December 16, for the murder of Miss Fannie Brown, on Walker's Creek, Saturday, October 22.

Wagon Damaged.

A wagon belonging to J. S. Fines, in charge of Philip Conby and John Lewis, colored, was badly damaged in a collision with a street car at Main and 7th streets last night. The wagon was bruised and out, and the horse was knocked down, but not seriously injured.

The following permits to build were issued in the office of Building Inspector Buck yesterday:
D. W. Mallory, to erect brick office on the west side of the Hornet Building, between Clay and Leigh Streets, $250.

WARRANT ISSUED AGAINST BANKER

Charged With Receiving Deposits, Knowing That Institution Is Insolvent.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Hampton, Va., November 11.—William H. Boynton, Sr., member of the banking firm of Boynton & Company, whose three banks were recently closed, was this evening arrested here on the charge of receiving deposits after he knew that the Upperville bank was insolvent. The warrant was sworn out by C. W. Willschire, of Fauquier county, and was brought here by Commonwealth's Attorney J. C. A. Keith, of Fauquier. Hearing that the warrant was out against him, Mr. Boynton to-night went to the office of his attorney, F. S. Collier, and surrendered. He was bailed for his appearance in Fauquier county on November 23, when the case will be heard by the grand jury of the Fauquier County Circuit Court. Dr. J. B. Prekey gave bond in the sum of $2,500 for Mr. Boynton's appearance. Mr. Boynton declined to discuss his arrest, but his friends here say that he will be able to show that his actions in the bank in Fauquier were honorable. Mr. Boynton is a former postmaster of Hampton, and one of the most prominent men in Tidewater. The firm of Boynton & Company conducted small banks in Hampton, Middleboro, Loudoun county and Upperville, Fauquier county.

It is said that the three banks had deposits amounting to $50,000. But no one is in a position to give accurate information until a sensational hearing, but he was showered with offers from well known men to become his bondsman when arrested.

JOHN A. SIMS ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING FUNDS

Indictment Against Former Agent of Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

Washington, D. C., November 11.—John A. Sims, former local superintendent of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, was indicted to-day for embezzlement. The indictment charges that Sims appropriated to his own use checks sent in settlement of local death claims and moneys turned over to him by the local cashier of the company, amounting to about $2,000.

Sims attempted to commit suicide in the waiting room at the office of a local physician, and was taken to the Emergency Hospital, then was under observation as to his mental condition. When he was released from the hospital his arrest followed.

TWO WITNESSES TESTIFY IN UNDERWRITERS' CASE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newport News, Va., November 11.—Robert Lecky, of Richmond, and Howard W. Saunders, of Hampton, insurance men, were on the witness stand in the trial of the officers of the Southeastern Underwriters Association to-day. Mr. Lecky was on the stand when court adjourned to-night, and it is likely that his examination will last several days. Judge Barham refused to-day to permit the Commonwealth to introduce a newspaper clipping containing a resolution adopted at the Hot Springs meeting for identification by Saunders. The resolution authorized the imposition of additional rates to cover and "combat" municipal license taxation regarded as excessive.

St. Petersburg, November 11.—The Novoe Vremya has received the following telegram from Tula, signed by Prince Dmitry Obolensky: "Count Leo Tolstoi left Yasnaya Polyana on the morning of October 10, accompanied by a physician, and neither has been heard from since. The countess is in despair. In a letter to his wife Tolstoi says he has decided to spend his remaining days in solitary retirement."
